

They were not the greeters at Carrie Cerino's, but Walter Turske and Tony Amaddio were waiting in the lobby for Millie who had gone to mail a letter when Dorothy and I walked in. Helen Andrus, Olga Kosko and Helen George were already at our table and they were joined by Helen Gemery. It was a pleasant surprise when Emma Monoky brought Rosemary Billy to our luncheon. Angelo Skoulis was without Mary who had to work. Shirley and Tom Harbietner did a wonderful job hosting the November meeting. Good friends, good food and good service. Who could ask for anything more?

I just got back from the North Pole and Santa and his workers send their regards and told me that we would all be remembered at our Christmas meeting which will be held at the Red Lobster, 7607 Day Drive, 440-888-0990. Santa also told me that I had better get the date, Wednesday, December 6th, 2006 and the time 1:00 P.M. right or he would not allow me to write any more newsletters and I would get a lump of coal in my Christmas stocking. He said that he would allow Dorothy and I to host this meeting.

Speaking of newsletters, the first announcement of our 65th class reunion will be mailed out the first week of December. It will request an RSVP for the reunion. It will have the date, time and location of the reunion. I would also like to thank Ted Kostuk for the nice card and the stamps that were enclosed with it. They will come in handy. Thanks again Ted.

Sincerely:
