

Santa came to our Christmas luncheon at the Red Lobster and he did not leave me a piece of coal but he did a great job decorating the table and he left some gifts and a lot of good cheer. We had a good selection of food and all came well prepared to eat. The company was perfect and our waitress was excellent. Mary Farage rendered a heart-warming grace and then Peter and Mary started the Christmas caroling.

Our group was in the Christmas spirit. Looking down the table I could see Dorothy, Mary and Angelo, Helen George, Walter, Millie and Tony joining in on the caroling. Not to be outdone Shirley and Tom, Olga Smeal, Helen Gemery, Olga Kosko, Rosemary Billy, Helen Andrus and Emma Monoky also starting singing. The only problem was that the special afternoon flew by to fast.

We want to thank Olga Kosko for giving us the stamps for the next mailings. And speaking of mailings, our first one for our 65th class reunion was sent out on the first week of December, and much to our dismay, we have had about twenty percent of the envelopes come back as undeliverable. We hope to get some help in trying to find our missing classmates.

The winner and first restaurant pick for the 2007 meeting on Wednesday, February 7th is Pipers Three, 8158 Broadview Road, 440-526-5454. Helen Gemery will host the meeting that starts at 1:00 P.M. Bring your appetites and a big smile and I guarantee another interesting meeting .

We have not heard from Peter Arden or Bob Henz, our brothers in Florida, but we did share a Christmas card that Ted Kostuk sent. Wonder if the hurricanes are keeping them from writing.

Sincerely:

Paul G. Hatala
